COMMITMENTS
Achieve at least:
• one YES for diversity on-screen in the content/subject matter or roles AND
• one YES for diversity off-screen in the content/subject matter or roles.

PLUS where possible, training should be provided in addition to the other off-screen criteria.

 Providing training alone will NOT meet the off-screen requirements **

TRACK CHANGES
Commitments are tracked against your final paperwork.
Any changes, particularly if your programme will no longer meet the guidelines, should be discussed with your commissioning editor.

MEASURING RESULTS
We measure progress monthly and monitor via DIAMOND.
HOW TO MEET ON SCREEN

To achieve a YES for on screen we expect to see diversity reflected within the on screen content and/or the on screen roles.

CONTENT/SUBJECT MATTER

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Factual programmes</th>
<th>Scripted programmes</th>
<th>Entertainment programmes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Programmes prominently featuring presenters and/or contributors who have a disability, are from an ethnic minority or are LGBT. Please note, a series should demonstrate diversity across multiple episodes, not just a single episode.</td>
<td>Programming in which either: (a) at least one of the lead characters is either from an ethnic minority background or is LGBT. OR (b) at least 50% of the lead characters are female.</td>
<td>Your entertainment series must meet BOTH the below targets for its on screen talent bookings and contributors across the series: (a) A minimum of 25% women AND (b) a minimum of 15% people are LGBT or are disability or are from an ethnic minority or another underrepresented group.</td>

ADDITIONAL OFF SCREEN COMMITMENT

Where possible, training should be provided in addition to the other off screen criteria. Providing training alone will not meet the off screen diversity requirements.

OFF SCREEN TRAINING

Training, internship and career progression

Your production should aim to achieve one of the following goals:

- Hire AT LEAST one paid intern, recruited from a recognised provider or undertaking an approved industry scheme for underrepresented groups:
  - Channel 4 Production Training Scheme (12 months)
  - Creative Access (with training for graduates from Black, Asian and minority ethnic backgrounds)
  - PACT Indie Diversity Training Scheme.

- OR

- Hire a graduate of one of these internship schemes, whether their internship had been with your company or elsewhere.

- OR

- Provide skills training from a recognised provider (e.g. those supported by ScreenSkills) for disabled team members or those from an ethnic minority background.

DISABILITY LEAD ROLE

1. on-screen representation
2. voice of disabled viewers
3. off-screen inclusion

1. open door policy
2. resources for hiring, including and progressing disabled talent
3. regular virtual networking events
Black to Front is a wide-ranging on and off-screen project focused on Black talent, which aims to transform Black representation both in front of, and behind the camera, going forward.

We’re looking at:

- New content on screen
- New Black talent on screen
- Growing established Black talent off screen
- Growing new networks and partnerships that will bed in and last long after the project is finished

Partnered with The Lenny Henry Centre to:

- Create something that will significantly increase Black and people of colour representation behind the camera for years to come.
